

Harinder Kohli

Harinder S. Kohli is the Founding Director and Chief Executive of Emerging Markets Forum as well as the Founding Director, President, and CEO of Centennial Group International both based in Washington, DC. He has written extensively on the emergence of Asia, Latin America, Africa and other emerging market economies; financial development; and infrastructure. He is also an author or co-author of some fifteen books published by international publishing houses, the ADB, World Bank (WB) and Japan International Cooperation Agency. These books include: The World in 2050: Striving for a Just, Prosperous, and Harmonious Global Community and China's Belt and Road Initiative: Potential Transformation of Central Asia and the South Caucasus. Prior to starting his current ventures, he served over twenty-eight years in various senior managerial positions at the WB and worked in some eighty emerging market economies in Asia, Latin America, Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Earlier, he worked in the private sector in India and France. He has also been independent Director of IT companies based in the US and India. He has lectured at the Emerging Markets Institute as well as many international forums.

Rajat Nag

Rajat M. Nag is concurrently a Distinguished Fellow both at India's National Council of Applied Economic Research, Delhi and at the Emerging Markets Forum, a think tank based in Washington DC. He was a Visiting Professor at the Stephen Zuellig Graduate School of Development Management, Asian Institute of Management in Manila (2014–15) and currently serves as a Distinguished Professor at the Emerging Markets Institute at the Beijing Normal University, China. In addition, he serves as an Advisor and Board Member of several organizations. Mr Nag was the Managing Director General of the Asian Development Bank during 2006–13. His work has given him wide-ranging insight into several issues and challenges relevant to Asia. His particular interest is in working to enhance regional cooperation and integration in Asia and beyond and bridging the gap between the region's thriving economies and the millions of poor people being left behind.

Ieva Vilkelyste

Ieva Vilkelyste is a Senior Research Associate at Centennial Group International and the Emerging Markets Forum. During her time at Centennial Group and EMF, she has collaborated on projects for the African Development Bank, the Japanese International Cooperation Agency, and CAF, among others. She also worked on The World in 2050: Striving for a Just, Prosperous, and Harmonious Global Community (2016), Kazakhstan 2050: Toward a Modern Society for All (2014) and Africa 2050: Realizing the Continent's Full Potential (2014). She graduated from Georgetown University in 2013, where she majored in economics.